Q42. In some cities, there were videos and reports of police officers driving their cars into large crowds of protesters, using pepper spray on people with their hands up, and shooting rubber bullets into crowds of journalists. There was also an instance where police broke the windows of a stopped car, and used tasers on the male and female passengers, and then pulled them from the car, allegedly because it was past curfew. Thinking about these events, which comes closest to your view:

	All Latinos	Arizona	Florida	Texas	Nevada	North Carolina	Pennsylvania
The police have every right to protect themselves during a protest	17%	18%	20%	16%	21%	10%	18%
The protesters started the violence, and police were simply reacting	14%	15%	14%	16%	10%	13%	16%
It's an unfortunate situation and both sides share responsibility	35%	32%	38%	37%	36%	40%	23%
The police started the violence, the protesters were mostly peaceful	15%	21%	11%	15%	12%	18%	16%
